Direct Support Service Core Training

SIVA Training remains steadfast and unwavering in its commitment to provide professionals, families and persons being supported with the proactive tools and practical knowledge to create an environment where safety is a pro-social, healthy and respectful part of day-to-day life. The introduction of our new Direct Support Service Core Training ensures that direct support providers have the foundational knowledge to safely and ethically provide core services that are respectful, empowering and preserve the dignity and rights of persons being supported.

The following are the core modules of the Direct Support Service Core Training:

- Health and Safety / Emergency Preparedness
- Medication Management, Health and Safety
- Legal and Ethical Issues
- Human Development / Personal Planning
